

CONSTITUTION OF THE COLORADO FFA ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I. Name

Section A: Name: The name of this organization shall be the Colorado FFA Association. Recognized units of the organization may officially use the letters FFA and/or the words "The National FFA Organization" to designate the organization, its units and/or members.

ARTICLE II. Objectives of the Organization

The primary objectives of the organization shall be consistent with Section 3 of the organization's federal charter, Public Law 105-225. The organization shall cooperate with national and state government agencies and officials in vocational education to accomplish the following objectives:

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional programs in agricultural education which prepare students for a wide range of careers in agriculture, agribusiness, and other agriculture-related occupations.
2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and in their work by developing desirable work habits and the effective usage of their time; by learning to assume responsibility; and by developing competencies in communications, human relations, and other social abilities leading to the intelligent choice of a career and successful employment or entrepreneurship in the agricultural industry.
3. To provide agriculture-related programs and activities which will develop pride, responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism, and thrift; and which will improve the economic, environmental, recreational and human resources of the community.
4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership and other individual and group activities by providing awards to deserving members and chapters.

ARTICLE III. Organization

Section A: Organization: The Colorado FFA Association and/or The National FFA Organization is the State Association of, by and for students of vocational education for agricultural occupations. It is composed of affiliated local chapters located in state approved school-based Agricultural Education programs providing organized instruction in Agriculture education under the provisions of the National Vocational Education Acts and the Colorado State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education. Collegiate chapters may also be organized and chartered under jurisdiction of the Colorado FFA Association and/or the The National FFA Organization.

Section B: Active FFA chapters shall be chartered in state approved schools where systematic instruction in Agricultural Education is provided as an approved program through the Colorado State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education. In case the local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is discontinued, the status of the charter shall be governed by Article IV, Section "B," #4 of the National FFA constitution; but in any event, it must be surrendered at the end of a 36-month period from date of discontinuance if the department of Agricultural Education is not in operation.

Section C: Members of local chapters shall meet, organize, adopt a constitution not in conflict with the State or National constitutions, elect their own officers, set up a program of work, and then apply to the State Advisor for a charter in the State Association. After this application has been approved by the State

Executive Committee, the members of the local chapter or collegiate chapter may meet and be recognized as The National FFA Organization.

Section D: Collegiate Membership: Collegiate membership may include students enrolled in agricultural courses and former active members of chartered local chapters who are enrolled in a two- or four-year institution having a collegiate chapter.

Section E: District Organization: The State organization may be divided into district organizations for the purpose of holding one or more district meetings per year, in addition to or in connection with district contests.

ARTICLE IV. Membership

Membership in the FFA organization shall be of four kinds: (1) active, (2) alumni, (3) collegiate, and (4) honorary.

Section A: Active Membership: Under program affiliation, all students enrolled in an agriculture education class are FFA members. Any student who is regularly enrolled in agricultural education is entitled to become an active member of any chartered FFA chapter upon enrollment into an ag education program thus granting membership. Members may retain their active membership until November 30, following the fourth national FFA convention after graduating from high school. A member who is in good standing at the time of induction into the armed forces of the United States of America shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. The time spent in the armed forces shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of four conventions following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members making use of this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advanced degrees, must resume active participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from service, indicating such a desire by payment of dues and attendance at meetings. Members participating in the six-months Armed Service Program shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual, however, may retain active membership beyond the 23rd birthday.

Section B: Alumni Membership: Membership shall be open to former active FFA members, collegiate or honorary FFA members, present and former professional agriculture educators, parents of FFA members, and others interested in and supporting the FFA.

Section C: Collegiate Membership: Collegiate membership may include students enrolled in agricultural courses and former active members of chartered local chapters who are enrolled in a two- or four-year institution having a collegiate chapter.

Section D: Honorary Membership: Farmers, school superintendents, principals, members of boards of education, chapter advisors, teachers, parents of FFA members, staff members in agriculture education and the FFA, and who have rendered outstanding service, may be elected to honorary membership by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting or convention.

Honorary membership shall be limited to the Honorary Chapter FFA Degree in the local chapter, Honorary State FFA Degree in the State Association, and the Honorary American FFA Degree in the National Association.

ARTICLE V. Degrees and Privileges

There shall be four degrees of active membership based on achievement. These are: (1) Greenhand FFA, (2) Chapter FFA, (3) State FFA, and (4) American FFA. The national organization shall set the standards for Greenhand FFA, Chapter FFA, State FFA and American FFA degrees.

Section A: Greenhand FFA Degree: On meeting the following minimum qualifications, the Greenhand FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter:

1. Be regularly enrolled in a vocational education course for an agricultural occupation and have satisfactory plans for a supervised agricultural occupation program.
2. Learn and explain the FFA Creed, Motto and Salute.
3. Describe the FFA emblem, colors and symbols.
4. Explain the proper use of the FFA jacket.
5. Have satisfactory knowledge of the history of the organization.
6. Know the duties and responsibilities of FFA members.

8. Submit a written application for the Degree for chapter records.

Section B: Chapter FFA Degree: On meeting the following minimum qualifications, the Chapter FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter:

1. Must have received the Greenhand Degree.
2. Must have completed the equivalent of at least 180 hours of systematic school instruction in agricultural education at or above the ninth grade level.
3. Have satisfactory knowledge of the local constitution and of the local program of activities.
4. Satisfactorily participated in at least three official functions in the chapter program of activities.
5. Have earned and productively invested at least $150 by the members own efforts or worked at least 45 hours in excess of scheduled class time, or a combination thereof, and developed plans for continued growth and improvement in a Supervised Agricultural Experience Program.
6. Demonstrate ability to effectively lead a group discussion for 15 minutes.
7. Demonstrate five parliamentary procedure abilities.
8. Have a satisfactory scholastic record as certified by the local agricultural education instructor and the Principal or Superintendent.
9. Submit application for the degree for chapter records.
10. Have participated in at least 10 hours of community service activities. These hours are in addition to and cannot be duplicated as paid or unpaid SAE hours.
11. Meet other requirements as established by the chapter and/or State Association.

Section C: State FFA Degree: On meeting the following minimum qualifications, the State FFA Degree may be conferred by the State Association:

1. Have received the Chapter FFA Degree and have been an active FFA member for at least two years (24 months).
2. While in high school, must be enrolled in at least the second year of instruction in a vocational education course for an agricultural occupation; if out of high school, must have completed the equivalent of two full years of systematic secondary school instruction (360 hours) in addition to a supervised farming and/or other agricultural occupational experience program.
3. Have earned and/or productively invested at least $2,500 by the member's own efforts from their Supervised Agricultural Experience Program or worked (other than scheduled class time) at least 750 hours in a Supervised Agricultural Experience Program as reported on page 11 line 26e.
4. Demonstrate leadership ability by:
  - a. Performing ten parliamentary procedure activities.
  - b. Giving a six-minute speech.

- c. Serving as an officer and/or committee chairman, or a participating member of a major committee.
- 5. Have a satisfactory scholastic record, certified by the local agricultural education instructor and principal or superintendent.
- 6. Participate in the planning and completion of the Chapter Program of Activities.
- 7. Participate in seven FFA activities above the chapter level.
- 8. Have participated in at least 25 hours of community service, within at least 2 different community service activities. These hours are in addition to and cannot be duplicated as paid or unpaid SAE hours.
- 9. Meet other requirements as established by the Board of Directors.
- 10. A full and complete application must be submitted by a qualifying candidate in order to receive the State FFA Degree. A full and complete application includes:
  - a. Current completed American FFA Degree application including all pages and check sheets and all signatures on Colorado Cover A,
  - b. Print dates on all pages must match, with the exception of the signature page.

The State Advisor will then review the records and submit a recommendation to the governing body of the State Association. This body will nominate at the regular State Convention the candidates who have earned the State FFA Degree.

Section D: American FFA Degree: On meeting the following minimum qualifications, the American FFA Degree may be conferred by the National Organization:

- 1. Must have the State FFA Degree and have been an active member for at least the immediate past 36 months and have a record of satisfactory participation in the activities at the local chapter and State Association.
- 2. Must have satisfactorily completed the equivalent of at least three years of systematic secondary school instruction in a vocational agricultural occupation (540 hours), or have completed the program of vocational education in agriculture offered in the school last attended, have been out of high school for at least 12 months prior to the convention at which the degree is granted, and have in operation an outstanding supervised farming and/or other agricultural experience program which must show comprehensive planning, continuation, growth, and increase in scope with records to substantiate such accomplishments.
- 3. Have earned and productively invested at least $7,500 or have earned and productively invested at least $1,500 and worked 2,250 hours in excess of scheduled class time. Any combination of hours x $3.33 plus dollars must be equal to, or greater than the number 9,000. Hours used for the purpose of producing earnings reported as productively invested income shall not be duplicated as hours of credit to meet the minimum requirements for the degree.
- 4. Show outstanding ability as evidenced by leadership and cooperation in student, chapter and community activities and have a satisfactory scholarship record certified by the local superintendent or principal of "C" or better.
- 5. Have participated in at least 50 hours of community service, within at least 3 different community service activities. These hours are in addition to and cannot be duplicated as paid or unpaid SAE hours.

ARTICLE VI. State Officers and Procedures for Election

Section A: State Officers: The State officers of the Colorado FFA Association shall consist of up to 10 offices which may include President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter, Sentinel and four Executive Committee Members. The State Officers shall be elected annually by a majority vote of the delegates present at a regular State Convention of FFA members. The State Officers shall perform the usual duties of their respective office.

Section B: Qualifications: All elected State officers of the Colorado FFA Association must hold the State FFA degree. A chapter may submit no more than two applications for a state office.

Section C: Term of Office: The term of office shall be one year or until their successors are elected. State officers shall not be re-elected to office, nor be eligible for another state office.

Section D: Nomination and Election of State Officers: The nominating committee shall submit one name for each office to be filled. The report will be submitted to delegates at the State FFA Convention. Additional nominations may be made from the floor. Nominations shall be made for a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter, Sentinel and four Executive Committee Members.

ARTICLE XI. Ethics

The Colorado FFA Association accepts the Code of Ethics as adopted by the delegates at the 1952 National FFA Convention and as revised at the 1995 National FFA Convention:

FFA members conduct themselves at all times to be a credit to their organization, chapter, school, community and family. As an FFA member, I pledge to:

1. Develop my potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success.
2. Make a positive difference in the lives of others.
3. Dress neatly and appropriately for the occasion.
4. Respect the rights of others and their property.
5. Be courteous, honest and fair with others.
6. Communicate in an appropriate, purposeful and positive manner.
7. Demonstrate good sportsmanship by being modest in winning and generous in defeat.
8. Make myself aware of FFA programs and activities and be an active participant.
9. Conduct and value a supervised agricultural experience program.
10. Strive to establish and enhance my skills through agricultural education in order to enter a successful career.
11. Appreciate and promote diversity in our organization.

ARTICLE XII. Emblem

Section A: The emblem of the National FFA Organization shall be made up of five symbols; namely; (1) the plow, representing the tillage of the soil, the basis of modern agriculture; (2) the owl, representing wisdom; (3) the rising sun, representing progress and a new era of agriculture; (4) a cross-section of an ear of corn, representing common agricultural interests, since corn is native to America and is grown in every state, and (5) an American eagle surmounting the cross-section of the ear of corn, indicating the national scope of the organization. The emblem shall also carry the three letters, "FFA" and the words "Agricultural Education."

2. Furthermore, all chapters and their members must follow the above guidelines to be eligible to receive any individual or chapter awards from the Colorado FFA Association.

ARTICLE II. Degrees and Privileges

Section A: Procedures for Selection of State FFA Degree: Candidates must meet the qualifications as set forth in the Official FFA Manual and State Constitution and complete the standard application as supplied by the State Association. For additional information on State FFA Degree selection, refer to the following:

1. State FFA Degree Application.
  2. FFA District and State Procedures for reviewing State FFA Degree Applications.
  3. State FFA Degree Application Direction Sheet for completion of the application.
  4. State FFA Degree Check Sheet.
- Selection of the degree recipients will be by the Colorado State Executive Committee based on the procedures outlined above.

ARTICLE III. Duties of State Officers

Section A: Duties of State Officers:

President: It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the State Convention and all State Executive Committee meetings. The President shall call one State Convention each year at such place and date as to be determined by the State Executive Committee. The President shall appoint all committees and may serve as ex officio member of all committees. The president shall also serve as the Co-Chair of the Board of Directors.

Vice President: It shall be the duty of the Vice President to preside in the absence of the President and be responsible for coordinating all committee work. The Vice President shall also be responsible for compiling the State Officer Report at the State Convention.

Secretary: It shall be the Secretary's duty to prepare and present the minutes of all meetings, present an agenda for each meeting, and attend to all official correspondence for the Association.

Treasurer: It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present a Treasurer's Report at each meeting, act as custodian of state funds, assist in preparing the state budget, and assist in maintaining the financial records of the State Association.

Reporter: It shall be the duty of the Reporter to prepare the state media record and assist the Vice President in preparing the State Officer Report. The Reporter shall be responsible for submitting news articles to the FFA New Horizons magazine.

Sentinel: It shall be the duties of the Sentinel to welcome special guests and to introduce guests in addition to caring for the meeting room and paraphernalia. The Sentinel shall assist the President in maintaining order.

Executive Committee Members: It shall be the duty of Executive Committee Members to represent the Colorado FFA Association at official activities and to work with all FFA members toward the development of competent and aggressive agricultural leaders. Specific duties of the Executive Committee Members are:

1. FFA Foundation Board of Trustees and assist the office manager as requested.
2. Prepare officer assignment sheets at each executive committee meeting and assist the state FFA Secretary as requested.

The Executive Committee Members select these duties among themselves.

Section B: Duties of the State Advisor and CVATA Executive Committee: State Advisor. It shall be the duty of the State Advisor to advise the State Executive Committee, delegates, and committees on matters of policy and assist the State Officers in conducting meetings and carrying out programs.

CVATA Executive Committee: It shall be the duties of the CVATA Executive Committee to:

- (1) Attend all regularly scheduled meetings,
- (2) Assist the State Officers in selecting all degree and award recipients,
- (3) Perform those duties in conducting the State FFA Convention as assigned by the State Executive Committee or Board of Directors.
- (4) Perform other duties as requested by the State FFA Advisor.

Section C: Additional Duties and Responsibilities: All State Officers shall reside on the CSU Spur campus and complete the required monthly hours working for the CSU education team or other Spur entities. They will also participate in the Career and Technical Student Organization leadership training, State Career and Leadership Development Event Contests State Convention, Chapter Visitation, State Fair and National Western Stock Show, National Leadership Conference for State Officers, and other official functions as assigned by the State Advisor.

Section D: Procedures for Selection of Nominating Committee: Nominating committee members will be selected prior to the State FFA Convention based upon the following criteria and minimum qualifications:

1. A nominating committee consisting of nine official state convention delegates—one from each of the four regions (a region would be a grouping of 4 districts) of the state, and five others selected at large—shall study and review the qualifications of each eligible candidate. This committee shall submit its nominations to the delegates assembled at the state convention. There will also be three Adult consultants (non-voting members) to the committee, appointed by the State Advisor, to serve a three-year term. One consultant will be a past state officer, one will be from business and industry, and one from agricultural education. Their roles will be defined in the State Officer Selection Handbook.
2. In order to be eligible, a delegate must be a bona-fide FFA member, have attained the Chapter FFA Degree prior to the convention, have been continuously enrolled in agricultural education classes and actively involved in the FFA for a minimum of seventeen (17) months prior to the State Convention, and have attended one convention prior to the time he/she will be serving on the nominating committee. The delegate could be a graduated member.
3. A delegate shall not be eligible to serve on the State Officer Nominating Committee if that member is involved in any contest or activity that requires that committee member to be absent from the committee process.

ARTICLE IV. Procedure for Chartering Local Chapters

(Refer to the application to charter a chapter in the Colorado FFA Policies and Procedures Handbook.)

Section A: A local FFA Chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State FFA Association when the following general conditions are met:

1. All annual unified dues and membership information is sent into the State Office.
2. The annual "FFA Program of Activities" for the coming year is submitted to the State Office.
3. All chapters must be current with payments to CO FFA and have two delegates present at the annual State Convention Business Meeting. There will be no charge of registration for the two delegates.

4. No provisions of chapter constitution are in conflict with the State and National FFA Constitution, Bylaws, or Federal Charter. Activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the State and National Organization.

5. In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association at the time of the opening of a State Convention, the delegates in State Convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the State governing body, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the State Convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the State governing body, not earlier than 10 days after the closing date of the State Convention during which it was not in good standing.

6. In case a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located is discontinued, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially for a period not to exceed 36 months from date of the discontinuance of the department, providing proper supervision and guidance can be given to the chapter work by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the State Advisor. Local chapter charters must be surrendered to the State Advisor at the end of the 36-month period if a local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school at that time.

7. A Licensed or Credentialed Agricultural Education Instructor must serve as the Local FFA Advisor.

ARTICLE V. Policies

Section A: Approval of Policies: All policies governing the operation of the Colorado FFA Association shall be approved by the delegates at the State FFA Convention and/or the Board of Directors.

Section B: Administration of Policies: All policies approved shall be outlined in the State FFA Policies and Procedures Handbook, and shall be governed or administered by the Board of Directors.

Section C: Roberts Rules of Order: The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall be the guide in all cases to which they are applicable in which they are not inconsistent with this Constitution and Bylaws, the National FFA Constitution and Bylaws or special rules of order adopted by this Association.

ARTICLE VI. Amendments

Section A: Amendments to the Bylaws may be submitted by any member or chapter. Any Bylaw changes will be submitted to the delegates for their consideration. Changes in the Bylaws may be adopted by a majority vote of the delegates present.

ARTICLE VII. Standing Rules

1. The Constitution and Bylaw Committee shall have the power to make grammatical and spelling alterations, that do not alter the intent or effect, to all proposed amendments by a majority vote without the approval of the body of delegates prior to submission to the assembly.
2. A resolution or constitutional amendment offered by an individual member shall be in writing, signed by the maker and seconder-each of whom shall be a voting member of the convention-and sent directly to the desk of the Secretary.
3. All constitutional amendments shall be referred without debate to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee for a recommendation and grammatical or spelling correction.
4. The Resolutions Committee shall have the power to make grammatical and spelling alterations, that do not alter the intent or effect, to all proposed resolutions by a majority vote without the approval of the body of delegates prior to submission to the assembly.

5. A resolution or constitutional amendment offered by an individual member shall be in writing, signed by the maker and seconder-each of whom shall be a voting member of the convention-and sent directly to the desk of the Secretary.
6. All resolutions except those proposed by the Board of Directors or standing committee, and all recommendations made in reports of officers or committees of the convention that are not in the form of resolutions, shall be referred without debate to the Resolutions Committee; resolutions proposed by the Board of Directors shall be presented directly to the Convention Delegates.
7. The Resolutions Committee shall prepare suitable resolutions to carry into effect any recommendations referred to it, and shall submit to the convention, with the Committee's own recommendation as to appropriate action, these and all other resolutions referred to the Committee, except questions which the Committee by a vote of two-thirds of its members may decide not to report.
8. The convention by a majority vote may suspend the rules above and immediately consider a question by a majority vote.
9. No member may speak in debate more than twice on the same question on the same day or longer than ten minutes, without permission granted from the assembly by a two-thirds vote.
10. The rules contained in the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the convention in all cases to which they are applicable and which they are not inconsistent with the bylaws of the Association and these standing rules.
